Planning for "What's Next?"

Supporting Successful Transitions at Any Age

Date: Tuesday, August 20th, 2013

Time: 5:00-7:00pm

Location: Stayton Public Library: 515 N. 1st Ave. Stayton, OR

Target Audience: Parents, family members, foster parents, in-home support providers, County Service Coordinators

 This training is limited to 25 participants*

"Transition" is big word that encompasses a lot of different things. With any successful transition, planning and support must take place (e.g. age, school, work, seasons, new people and places).

Participants will receive training on tools and techniques to support successful transitions at any age.

Presenter: Emily Harris, OTAC Positive Behavior Support Specialist

The content of this training is based on the principles and values of Positive Behavior Support (PBS).
